AUDITORIUM

Three Big Stars on Bill at This Popular Theatre - Charlie Chaplin, George Walsh and Billy Hall and

The Auditorium theatre management is presenting some show for the first half of the week. Three big stars go to make up one of the best bills seen in Norwich in some time, includ-ing Charlie Chaplin, the world's greatest comic, in a two-part comedy, and it was a corker. George Waish fulfilled all our expectations yester-day when he appeared in his latest Wm. For photoplay, entitled Brave and Bold. Spine-creeping thrills and hearty laughter were furnished in plenty by this athletic dynamo. Besides he has a splendid story. It is adapted from "Four-Forty at Fort Fama," by Perlay Poore Sheehan. It will remain today so don't miss seeing

Billy Hall and his musical comedy Billy Hall and his musical comedy company presented a big laughing show entitled Marrimonial Troubles, a satire on present day married life. Billy Hall appearing in black-face, is the chief funmaker and kept the audience in screams of laughter, while his associates all did their best, and are a finished lot of performers in their different lines of work. The trials and tribulations of married life are exposed in a very laughable manner. Current Events, showing the latest war news, were interesting and went to make up one of the best shows seen to make up one of the best shows seen at the Auditorium theatre this season.

BREED THEATRE

Marguerite Clark in Prunella, Feature Today and Tuesday-On the Stage t Held New York Enthralled-On the Screen it Will Startle and Delight You.

A treat for "movie lovers" is in atore at the Breed theatre today when dainty Marguerite Clark will appear in a Paramount screen version of Pru nella, which will be remembered a her greatest stage success some year A story of Love in a Dutch Gar-as its authors, Granville Barker den as its authors, Granville Barker and Laurence Housman called it, the picture is even more beautiful than the stage version and under the expert direction of Maurice Tourneur, has become a most unusual production. The cast includes Jules Raucourt, who recently appeared in support of Pauline Frederick in La Tosca as the Pierrot who falls in love with Prunella and abducts her from the prim home of her aunts only to desert her later. How he finds that after all he cannot live without her and returns to her old home in the hope that she too will come, is skilfully and charmingly shown in this new Marguerite Clark Paramount picture. Other pictures on the bill inture. Other pictures on the bill in-clude The Eagle's Eye and the Hearst-
